DAMODAR VALLEY CORPORATION

Calcutta, the 7th May 1976

No. 100.—In exercise of the powers conferred by section 60 of the Damodar Valley Corporation Act, 1948 (14 of 1948) the Corporation hereby makes, with the previous sanction of the Central Government the following regulations, further to amend the Damodar Valley Corporation Service Regulations, namely :—

1. (i) These may be called the Damodar Valley Corporation Service (29th Amendment) Regulations, 1976.
- (ii) They shall come into force on the date of their publication in the Official Gazette.
2. In the Damodar Valley Corporation Service Regulations—
 - (i) for clauses (a) and (b) of regulation 21, the following shall be substituted, namely :—
 - “(a) Every employee, other than an employee of Class III service shall retire from service on the afternoon of the last day of the month, in which he attains the age of 58 years.
 - (b) An employee of Class III service shall retire from service on the afternoon of the last day of the month in which he attains the age of 60 years.

Note 1 :

The date on which an employee attains the age of fifty-eight years or sixty years, as the case may be, shall be determined with reference to date of birth declared by the employee at the time of his appointment and accepted by the appropriate authority on production, as far as possible, of confirmatory documentary evidence such as Matriculation Certificate or extracts from Birth Register. The date of birth so declared by an employee and accepted by the appropriate authority shall not be subject to any alteration after the preparation of his service book and in any event, after the completion of the probation period or declaration of quasi-permanency, whichever is earlier. An alteration in the date of birth of an employee can be made at a later stage only by the Corporation, if it is established that a bonafide clerical mistake has been committed in recording the date of birth in the service book.

Note 2 :

An employee whose date of birth is the first of a month shall retire from service on the afternoon of the last day of the preceding month on attaining the age of fifty-eight or sixty years, as the case may be.”

(ii) for sub-regulation (1) of regulation 73, the following shall be substituted, namely :—

“(1) The earned leave admissible to an employee is one eleventh of the period spent on duty :

Provided that he shall cease to earn such leave when the earned leave due amounts to 180 days.”;

(iii) in regulation 75, clause (i) shall be omitted;

(iv) in regulation 77, after clause (iii), the following shall be inserted, namely :—

“(iiia) Half pay leave up to a maximum of 180 days shall be allowed to be commuted during the entire service where such leave is utilised for an approved course of study, that is to say a course which is certified to be in the interest of the Corporation, by the Leave Sanctioning authority.”;

(v) in sub-regulation (2) of regulation 81, the words, letters and figures “subject to a maximum of Rs. 750” and the proviso thereunder shall be omitted.;

(vi) after regulation 84(B), the following shall be inserted, namely :—

“84 (C)—In case an employee dies in harness, the cash equivalent of the leave salary that the deceased employee would have got, had he gone on earned leave, but for death, due and admissible on the date immediately following the date of death, subject to a maximum of leave salary for 120 days shall be paid to his family subject to reduction by the amount of pension equivalent of death-cum-retirement gratuity.”.
